

Newsletter #66

6th May 2019

Dear parents/students/governors/alumni/friends,

It has been a rather punctuated start to the term, but at least this week is a full 5 days with the full programme of afternoon activities.

Looking ahead to election week, please note that we have already decided to cancel afternoon House activities on Tuesday 21st May. However, clubs will go ahead as normal on 20th May. We have yet to decide upon when or not House and Clubs will run on 22nd / 23rd May but will inform you nearer the time via all of our communication media.

Exam season is well under way and I would like to wish all senior students the best of luck during the next two months. Many senior students are already on their study leave, but I know that teachers are more than welcome to assist with final revision questions. Students - please keep in touch!

K P Smith, Head Teacher

Keeping Standards High: Correct Uniform

ties, sweaters with no logo etc.

From TUESDAY 30th April we have introduced 'spot fines', students in incorrect uniform will do litter picking around the tuck shop area at break time.

Let's all work together to keep standards high.

Open invitation to our Global Goals celebration evening.

THE GLOBAL GOALS
For Sustainable Development

Its been a busy week for our 13 global goals teams as their final competition reports had to be submitted by May 1st. If you would like to see what our 60 students have been up to this year then please come along to our celebration evening on Thursday May 9th, 6-7pm in the _main school hall.

The global goals competition is an international competition run by an organisation called global social leaders. <https://www.globalsocialleaders.com/ggcompetition/> The aim is to raise awareness about the 17 United Nations sustainable development goals. It invites students aged 11-17 to form a team, identify an issue in their local community and take action to address this issue.

minutes and dashed back to our beds so quickly we almost tripped over our urine pots.

Then she came, as fast as lightning, eager to catch a misbehaving boy. Although we had shut the door, we could hear the slip and slide as she fell on the soapy floor. We were all giggling hysterically into our pillows until suddenly the door flew wide open with a mind-blowing BANG. The matron came marching in, "WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS?" Nobody dared to move, "GO ON TELL ME WHICH WRETCHED BOY DID THIS?"

Her face was turning red and her hands turned into fists, but then she did the most unexpected thing ever. She flicked on the lights, grabbed a chair and sat down. Then she gave us a long speech about all the things we had done wrong and believe it or not she even apologized for all the horrible punishments she had given us. She then, asked us if we could FORGIVE HER! We did and from that night on she had become a sort of second mother to all of us.
